Fit to Fight

Cutting the ribbon to the new fitness room at the Air Force Inspection Agency-Air Force Safety Center are Col. David Snodgrass (left) AFIA commander, and Col. Daniel Tompkins, representing AFSC. The agency invested its own funds in a wide array of equipment to meet the higher Air Force fitness standards due to take effect in the new year. The minifitness center, located in a converted mail room, will be shared by more than 200 personnel, meaning less pressure on the base fitness center as troops make themselves more fit to fight.
